“I Want to Be A ...”
Childtime Learning Center Students Celebrate
Career Week with Mayor Thompson

SUGAR LAND, Texas, August 4, 2009 – Children attending Childtime Learning Center – located at 4418 Sweetwater Blvd. – will be spending the week of August 10, 2009 dreaming of what they want to be when they grow up as the school celebrates Career Week.

This year, the children will have time with a very special guest, James Thompson, the Mayor of Sugar Land. Mayor Thompson will meet with approximately 50 children between the ages of 4 and 12 on Tuesday, August 12th at 10:00 a.m. to discuss careers in politics.

“We are honored to have Mayor Thompson visit our school as part of our Career Week event,” said Jennal Holts, center director. “The children are extremely excited and are looking forward to the special time they will have with such a prominent figure in our community.”

The media is welcome to attend the event, however, we ask that you please call in advance for the safety of the children.

About Childtime Learning Centers

Childtime is one of the nation’s largest providers of child care and preschool educational services. Over the last 30 years, Childtime has earned a strong reputation and has grown into a network of over 250 centers. The home-like atmosphere of the centers and the personal attention students receive sets them apart from other national childcare networks.
